

Tomonari Hayasaka, Ph.D., OTR

Specialist Occupational Therapist (Acute Stage Psychiatry), Japanese Association of Occupational Therapists.

Current position:

- Associate Professor, Department of Rehabilitation, Faculty of Health Sciences, Kyorin University
- Concurrent post, Department of Neuropsychiatry, School of Medicine, Kyorin University
- Managing Director, Japanese Association of Occupational Therapists
- Executive Committee Member, 8th Asia Pacific Occupational Therapy Congress 2024
- Secretary-General, Japanese Research Association for Occupational Therapy of Mood Disorders

Research subject:

- Occupational Performance Characteristics in Occupational Therapy with Difficult-to-treat Depression
- Factors that Improve the Social Activity Status of Patients with Mental Disorders Participating in Occupational Therapy